United States v. Orlando CARMONA-SERRANO
(S10) 16 Cr. 387 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

By Order dated October 25, 2021 (D.E. 559), the Court directed, inter alia, counsel to confer regarding whether and how the next status conference in this matter, currently scheduled for November 9, 2021, is to proceed.

Accordingly, this letter is to advise the Court that counsel have indeed conferred and that we seek an adjournment of approximately sixty (60) days on consent. The purpose of the request is to allow the defense additional time to review the very voluminous discovery produced by the government, as well as to obtain translations of many documents.

In conjunction with this request, we ask the Court to adjust the motion schedule previously put in place and consent to an exclusion under the Speedy Trial clock in these circumstances.

For these reasons, we ask that the status conference in this matter be adjourned until the late morning or early afternoon on a date in late January that is convenient for the Court. Counsel anticipates being out of the District the week of January 10, 2022 due to other, previously scheduled appearances in the District of Puerto Rico.

Finally, Mr. Carmona-Serrano is prepared to waive his right to attend altogether. It is counsel's understanding that the Constitution, the Federal Rules and the CARES Act so permit.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
HOWARD LEADER

Assistant United States Attorney (VIA ECF)
